The Anglo Saxon Five Eyes military alliance will not use nuclear weapons to protect these entities, the head of MI6 promises. They say the current Khazarian Mafia (what they call DVD) controlled governments need to be removed before new global arrangements, including a new financial system, can begin.

Regime change has already begun in the UK, France and Japan where summer elections are expected to overthrow KM-controlled governments.

OK, let us look at the war scenario in detail now. Multiple information sources make it clear it will start with simultaneous military moves by Serbia against NATO, North Korea against South Korea and Turkey plus Egypt and Iran against Israel.

At the same time, some very nasty events are expected inside the US.

Let us start with the US. As we and others have previously reported, at least 7.4 million military-aged, male illegal immigrants have entered the US since the Rockefeller run Biden administration seized power in 2021. We also note that containers filled with weapons have been stashed all over the US.

Now, the US government says:

...all immigrant males between the ages of 18 and 25 are required by law to register with the Selective Service System (SSS) within 30 days of arriving in the United States. This includes naturalized citizens, parolees, undocumented immigrants, legal because they are arriving from safe countries and then flushing their passports down the toilet.

No wonder 62% of registered voters favor “a new national program to deport all undocumented immigrants currently living in the U.S. illegally.”

Needless to say, the white hat military will have to decapitate the Rockefeller network in the US to prevent this from happening.

In any case, while the US is distracted by an undeclared civil war, this will be seen by the rest of the world as an opportunity to remove Satanic regimes in many parts of the world.

In Europe, Serbian President Aleksandar Vucic has placed the country's army on full combat alert and ordered its units to move closer to the border with Kosovo.

<https://www.reuters.com/world/europe/serbia-president-puts-military-combat-alert-orders-army-move-closer-kosovo-2023-05-26/>

"The Train has Left the Station and No One Can Stop It," Europe Will be at War with Russia, Vucic says.

After promising to support Serbia, Putin went to North Korea to re-establish a military alliance.

In an article published in North Korea, Putin said Russia is ready to:

to confront the ambition of the collective West to prevent the emergence of a multipolar world order...[and fight the US-led] “rules-based order”, which is essentially nothing more than a global neo-colonial dictatorship relying on double standards [and will] will support the DPRK and the heroic Korean people in their

The North Korean representative says his country now has 200 nuclear weapons capable of hitting the US mainland so they no longer fear US nuclear retaliation for any attempt to reunify Korea. They say the US will not trade Washington, New York, Los Angeles and Chicago for Pyongyang.

Russian FSB sources say military moves against Kosovo (ie NATO) and South Korea would take place at the same time as Turkey, Iran and Egypt move on Israel.

Turkey, which has the largest NATO army after the US, has already said it wants to join the BRICS alliance. Egypt has also warned it is going to end its peace treaty with Israel. Iran, of course is already on the warpath against Israeli dictator Benyamin Satanyahu.

If war starts in the Autumn, there can be no doubt the fascist KM controlled “rules based world order” will lose. Pentagon sources say Russia, China North Korea, Iran and other allies have more than 10 million soldiers with 20 million in reserve and up to 30 million more available via emergency conscript military operations.

By contrast NATO (excluding Turkey) can field a maximum of 3 million soldiers.

Needless to say, facing these odds, the collective West is suing for peace. There are high-level negotiations taking place for some sort of announcement this fall of a replacement of the post-war international system based on the UN, the BIS, the World Bank the IMF etc.

However, before we get into that, we would like to offer a chance to all those investors who bought the Iraqi Dinar, the Zimbabwe Dollar and the Vietnamese Dong in https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Panguna_mine

As background, Rothschild-owned companies started operating the Panguna mine in 1972 until they were forced by the local people to shut it down in 1989. The people of Bougainville or The Kingdom of Papaala as they call it, fought against the Rothschilds because the mine was polluting local rivers with arsenic and destroying the agriculture and livelihoods of the locals.

Now King David Pee II of Papaala is asking for people to support a reopening of the mine using ecologically friendly techniques by investing in their non-Rothschild controlled currency the Kina.

As a matter of disclosure, the only financial interest your correspondent has in this matter is ownership of a 100 Kina bill given to him by His Majesty when he visited in 2017.

Also, investors need to be aware this money will only rise in value if enough funds are gathered for the people of Papaala to hire technicians and buy equipment needed to reopen the mine, so it is a high-risk, high-return proposition.

Meanwhile, back at the Rothschild-controlled financial system, we are seeing more signs of some sort of jubilee and financial reset. We have been told there is agreement to set up a meritocratically staffed future planning organization and stage a worldwide jubilee in 2025.

As a part of this, the Japanese emperor is visiting the UK this week in part to discuss the nationalization of the Bank of Japan, right-wing sources close to the Emperor say. The Rothschild owners of the BOJ will be discussing this with the Emperor, they say.

This coincides with the announcement Baron Nathaniel has taken over control of Rothschild and Company Bank. Nathaniel has made it clear he wants to cooperate with

This is interesting in light of the fact the Luxembourg based private bank Edmond de Rothschild partially owns the Bank of Japan.

We also note that foreigners -ie BlackRock, Vanguard and other fronts for the Rothschilds and Rockefellers- have been dumping their Japanese stock holdings to try to repatriate as much money as possible before the BOJ is nationalized and their illegally acquired Japanese shareholdings are confiscated. That is the real reason the yen is so weak these days.

As evidence of this, the Japanese Finance Ministry is making moves against Mitsubishi UFJ Bank, Morgan Stanley and others, Asian Secret Society sources say.

There is also an operation underway to end the fake government in Japan, cancel the Treaty of San Francisco and turn Japan into an independent nation again. For reasons of operational security, we cannot get into details at this moment.

The other owners of the BOJ, the Vatican bank and their Black Sun overlords for their part are holding back until they see the announcement of a multi-polar world federation, P3 Freemason sources say.

In a sign something is also going to happen with the Federal Reserve Board in the US, President and Commander in Chief Donald Trump is proposing “repealing the income tax and replacing it with tariffs and deep spending cuts on our regulatory state, which severely retards innovation and wealth creation.”

which we will discuss further below.

It looks like regime change will come to the UK first with a Fourth of July election. Early polls indicate Nigel Farage of the Reform Party is going to destroy traditional political parties; he has a massive 27-point lead over other parties in the district of Clacton.

<https://www.the-sun.com/news/11695621/nigel-farage-clacton-point-lead-poll/>

MI5 meanwhile reports Labor Party leader presumptive poll winner Keir Starmer is being outed as a former Soviet agent and will be forced to resign.

To understand what a Reform party victory would look like, here are key points of their manifesto:

- REJECT the WEF agenda
- Cancel WHO membership
- REJECT cashless agenda
- Laws to stop woke ideology
- Free speech bill

- Tax system to support marriage
- Opposed to CBDCs

Nigel Farage also wants to end the war in Ukraine and investigate vaccine crimes.

A similar change is expected in France after their June 30th and July 7th Parliamentary elections.

In a sign these elections are a preliminary to ousting President Emanuelle Macron Rothschild, he is being outed for marrying a man pretending to be a woman.

Watch King Charles Kiss the hand of every woman he's introduced to as per Royal Custom. Then why does he shake the hand of Brigitte Macron?

French sources meanwhile claim to have tracked Jean Michel Henri Trogneux alias Brigitte Macron to Toulon in 1973, when he was the owner of a jewelry store, before changing sex and identity toward the end of the 1980s. In the picture below on the left he is a little boy; on the right when he was teaching college and calling himself "Brigitte."

Since Nuclear energy accounts for 70% of France's electricity, this is a mortal blow for the French economy.

Emmanuel Macron has driven his country to the brink of a "Frexit" moment where it will leave the EU, the EU's chief Brexit negotiator Michel Barnier says.

<https://www.yahoo.com/news/emmanuel-macron-risks-triggering-frexit-103613146.html>

As touched on above, there will also be regime change in Israel if that country hopes to survive. The regime of Satanyahu is being cut off to this end.

According to Mossad sources, Satanyahu Netanyahu says the U.S. is withholding military aid to Israel. (See attached video of Satanyahu whining like a baby). "He knows his days are fast coming to an end. This ties in with what we discussed a month ago regarding Israel being tossed under the bus.... While The Military White Hat Alliance quietly joins Iran," the source says.

This comes as real numbers show 70,000 Israeli soldiers have been disabled and countless thousands more wounded in the Gaza war. The death toll is still being kept secret.

<https://www.presstv.ir/Detail/2024/06/19/727742/Record-tens-of-thousands-disabled-Israeli-soldiers-receive-treatment>

The Israeli military is now revolting against Netanyahu and his aim to “destroy Hamas.” “To say that we are going to make Hamas disappear is to throw sand in people’s eyes. If we don’t provide an alternative, in the end, we will have Hamas,” Rear Admiral Daniel Hagari told Israel’s Channel 13 broadcaster.

<https://insiderpaper.com/israel-army-spokesman-says-hamas-cant-be-eliminated/>

The Israeli press meanwhile is now openly saying the military knew all about Hamas’s October 7 plans long before the attack.

They have been caught trying to murder us with vaccines. According to a now censored tweet by Dr. Peter McCullough, Bill Gates gave $9.5 million to the University of Wisconsin-Madison and principal investigator Yoshihiro Kawaoka to modify H5N1 viruses so they could infect humans and other mammals. "This indicates that the Gates Foundation has funded bioterrorist-like activities involving H5N1, providing blueprints for other bad actors who may want to create biological weapons," he wrote.

United States 800,000 missing children
